PARENTAL AGREEMENTS

RESPONSIBLE USE POLICY

I grant permission for my student(s) to use the Miramonte computer network and accept responsibility for helping my student(s) abide by the rules of the Miramonte Network Responsible Use Policy located in the Miramonte School Student Handbook 2010-2011.

DISPLAY OF STUDENT ELECTRONIC WORK

While we are very concerned with the privacy and safety of our students, we would also like to begin a limited expansion of the Miramonte web site. We would like to publish student work and photographs of student activities. The following policy was developed from responses to the parent survey.

Student work displayed on Miramonte's web site will be identified by grade with first names only. Group shots of students may be included on the web site, church newsletter and monthly slideshows, listing of individual names may appear with the photos. Students mentioned in the Mainspring (weekly parent newsletter posted on the Miramonte web site) articles will be identified by first name only. No information on student addresses or phone numbers will be posted on the web page. Initial here: _____

Student electronic work and files stored on the Miramonte network server are the property of Miramonte School. Periodically, student work stored on the server may be used for professional development or training of other teachers interested in improving their implementation of technology in their classrooms.

Because we are concerned about your family's privacy and safety, we will honor any and all limitations that you may place on this consent to publish. Please list any limitations:

According to the above guidelines and limitations, I give permission for my student(s) work to be published electronically.
